NEW ENGLISH CHRYSANTHEMUMS

STOCK CLUMPS

Heavy fall work has prevented us until now in sending our list of stock plants of our lovely English Chrysanthemums, and judging from the inquiries we are receiving many of you are getting very anxious.

Those of you who have tried these lovely Chrysanthemums need no introduction to them. These Chrysanthemums are early blooming, making it possible to raise them where you have never been able to raise them before. And the large size of the bloom and brilliant color range makes them nothing short of sensational.

We have a surplus over and above what we need for our own spring propagating. We are offering these to you so you may propagate them in your greenhouse over the winter. We do not advise you to plant them this late in the open field. If you have no greenhouse facilities, better wait until spring and order rooted cuttings.

Also please do not ask us to hold clumps for a later shipment; these offers are for immediate shipment only.

These prices are for nice field-grown clumps dug fresh from the field the day your order is filled.

BE SURE AND MENTION A NUMBER OF SECOND CHOICE SELECTIONS. It will help us and will keep you from being disappointed so much in case we are out of some of your selections. PLEASE HELP US BY SENDING YOUR ORDERS IN AS SOON AS YOU CAN.

The price for a clump is exactly the price that we charged for a rooted cutting last spring, and if you order three of a variety you get the three for the price of two rooted cuttings of that variety. However, the three must be of the same variety in all cases.

Refer to our Spring Retail Catalogue which you should have for complete descriptions of each variety; and if you do not have a catalogue, write for one, as we still have a small supply.

In case there was something in our Spring Catalogue that we do not have on this list and you want it, order it at the straight catalogue price for that variety and if we can spare it at all out of our own reserve stock we will do so, but would advise getting your order in as early as possible.

SHIPMENT WILL BE MADE BY EXPRESS
